ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

ARTICLE I
NAME

1.01 Name

The name of this corporation shall be the Military Aviator Coalition for Health, INC, herein termed "MACH". The business of the corporation may be conducted as "MACH".

ARTICLE II
DURATION

2.01 Duration

The period of duration of this corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE

3.01 Purpose

MACH is a non-profit corporation and shall operate exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

MACH aims to: 1) provide support to the research agenda of all cancers driven by certain toxic exposures that are isolated to the Department of Defense fixed-wing flyers and rotary-wing aviators, 2) identify the knowledge base currently serving and Veteran flyers need to understand their exposures as they may relate to future cancer diagnosis, 3) assist Veterans in obtaining the information they need to file toxic exposure disability claims linked to their military aviation service, 4) answer federal lawmaker questions regarding the mechanics of toxic exposure within military aviation to aid their lawmaking work and achieveing their priorities.

3.02 Non-Profit

MACH is designated as a non profit corporation.

ARTICLE IV
NON PROFIT NATURE

4.01 Non Profit Nature

MACH is organized exclusively for charitable purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of MACH shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Director, Board Members, officers, staff or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

MACH is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to its charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

4.02 Personal Liability

No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of MACH of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

4.03 Dissolution

Upon the termination or dissolution MACH, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of MACH hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of MACH and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against MACH by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to organizations located within the State of Virginia.

In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but that there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of Virginia to be added to the general fund.

4.04 Prohibited Distributions

No part of the net earnings or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Director, Board Members, officers, staff or designated agent except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable, equitable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these articles.

4.05 Restricted Activities

No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

4.06 Prohibited Activities

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
